

II. Be it further enacted, That no person who may be summoned to attend and serve as a juror at any of the said courts shall hereafter be compelled to give his attendance for said duty until the second day of the term of such court; and furthermore, that all acts or clauses of acts coming within the meaning and purview of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER XCIV.

An act to amend an act, passed A. D. one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, entitled an act to allow compensation to jurors of the original pannel in the county of Buncombe.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the ratification of this act, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of Buncombe county to receive jurors' tickets obtained agreeably to the provisions of the above recited act in payment of all taxes due from said jurors and collected by the sheriff; and such tickets so received by him in payment for such taxes shall be vouchers in his settlement with the county trustee.

II. Be it further enacted, That the first section of the above recited act, which provides for the imposition of a tax by the County Court for the payment of jurors, be, and the same is hereby continued in force.

CHAPTER XCV.

An act to authorise James M'Kee, sheriff of Haywood county, to collect certain taxes therein mentioned.

Whereas doubts have arisen whether the act erecting the county of Macon out of a part of Haywood, passed A. D. one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, prevents the collection by the sheriff of Haywood of taxes listed in the county of Haywood in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, and payable in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine, comprehending as it then did the present county of Macon:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That James M'Kee, sheriff of Haywood, shall and may have authority to collect in the county of Macon all taxes listed in said county, then a part of Haywood, during the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and payable in one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, in as full and ample manner as if no act had ever been passed erecting a portion of Haywood into a separate and distinct county.

CHAPTER XCVI.

An act to legitimate Alexander Cheshire, of the town of Edenton, and county of Chowan.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act, Alexander Cheshire, an illegitimate son of John Cheshire and Elizabeth Benson, of the town of Edenton, is hereby declared legitimate; and that he shall be known and called by the name of Alexander Cheshire; and by that name may sue and be sued; plead and be impleaded; and receive and take property by descent or distribution.

CHAPTER XCVII.

An act designating the place where the first regiment of the militia of Davidson county shall hereafter hold their musters.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and
